

About the visit to the production base

In the framework of the program of training students of the faculty of the General Staff of the Armed Forces (operational-tactical level) of educational institution "Military Academy of the Republic of Belarus" on the discipline "Organization of restoration of armament, military and special equipment" on February 15, 2022 the students and teaching staff visited the production base of one of the enterprises belonging to the system of State Committee for Defense Industry.

In the course of the visit the students and teaching staff got acquainted with the company's capabilities in manufacturing, repair, modernization, extension of service life and development of new models of weapons, military and special equipment.

