

Year of Historical Memory: Excursion to Khatyn

Employees of the enterprise together with their children visited the memorial complex “Khatyn” on March 27.

The village of Khatyn can no longer be found on the map of Belarus. On March 22, 1943, it, together with its inhabitants, was destroyed by the Nazis. 149 people were killed, including 75 children.

Remembering Khatyn, we honor the memory of other Belarusian villages that were brutally destroyed by the Nazi invaders during the Great Patriotic War.

